COUNTRY Soviet Zone of Germany TOPIC Airfield of LAURZ DATE OF CONTENT 11 August 1949 25X1 DATE PREPARED 29 September 1949 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 It was observed at the LAERZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire.	INTELLOFAX	Approved For Release 2003/	RESTANDER -00457R0035006200045 E
The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the air unit was not revenue. ZOWNEDINIAL in accordance with the lattern of the reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not revenue. ZOWNEDINIAL in accordance with the lattern of the reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the airfield. ZOWNEDINIAL in accordance with the lattern of the reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the airfield. ZOWNEDINIAL in accordance with the lattern of a conditioning work was apparently not completed at the airfield. ZOWNEDINIAL in accordance with the latter of a Colober 1978 from the Director of Central inclingance to the Archivat of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008	NO. THE PERSON AND ALCOHOLOGY	CLASSIFICATION REC	LIDIAN 25X1
DATE OF CONTENT. 11 August 1949 25X1 DATE PREPARED 29 Sentember 1949 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 It was observed at the LAPRZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the latter of 16 Cotober 1976 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document No. No Changed in 1842. Ruth: H. 1842. Document States. Next Review Date: 2008	COUNTRY.
DATE OF CONTENT_ 11 August 1949 25X1 DATE PREPARED 29 Sentember 1949 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 It was observed at the LARRZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black—shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the latter of 16 October 1976 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Decument No. No. Changed in 1875. Runha: H. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18. 18	TOPIC	Airfield of LAURZ
DATE OF CONTENT 11 August 1949 25X1 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 It was observed at the IAERZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,500 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the arfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regarded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the litter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document Na. Next Review Date: 2008
DATE OF CONTENT 11 August 1949 25X1 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 It was observed at the IAERZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,500 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the arfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regarded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the litter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document Na. Next Review Date: 2008			(C25X1
25X1 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 It was observed at the LAERZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direct tion starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ram along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the saffield. This document is hereby regarded to Constitution of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document No. No Change in [Cast 1] Document No. No Change in [Cast 1] Document No. Not Review Date: 2008	DATE OF C	NONTENT 11 An right 1040	10/023/1
REMARKS 25X1 It was observed at the LAERZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Decument No. Next Review Date: 2008	DATE OF C	ONI EN
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X1 It was observed at the LAERZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direct tion starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not settioned at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Central intolligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Decument No. No Change in East. Next Review Date: 2008	DECEDENO	70	DATE PREPARED 29 September 1949
It was observed at the LAFRZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1		·	The state of the s
It was observed at the LAERZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1	•
It was observed at the LAERZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document No. No Change in the United States. Next Review Date: 2008	REMARKS_
It was observed at the LAERZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document No. No Change in the United States. Next Review Date: 2008
It was observed at the LAERZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document No. No Change in the United States. Next Review Date: 2008
It was observed at the LAFRZ (N 54/U 33) airfield that a seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document No. Not Review Date: 2008 seemingly new and black-shining runway extended in an E-W direction starting about 1,600 feet from the railroad line. A taxiway in bad condition ran along the western border of the field. One biplane and two single-engine mid-wing monoplanes were parked just south of the runway, about 3,300 feet from the railroad line. About 20 men divided into four groups worked with colored boards north of the runway. They presumably belonged to a surveying detail. A stone building at the airfield seemed to be gutted by fire. X1 Comment: The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document No. Next Review Date: 2008	25X1		(g) the company in the contract of the contrac
The reported runway was not new but reconditioned. The reconditioning work was apparently not completed at the time of observation. An air unit was not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document No. No Changa in Case Class. Changa to TS S Chan		groups worked with colored presumably belonged to a s	bout 20 men divided into four d boards north of the runway. They observation. An air unit was not completed at the time of not stationed at the airfield. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document No. No Changa in Casal Class. Changa in Casal Changa	5X1
CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008 Document No. No Change in Gassi Declassified Class. Changes to Ts S C Auth.: His Ta-2		ditioning work was apparen	itly not completed at the time of
No Change in Cases Declassified Class. Change to: Ts s 6			CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
No Change in Cases Declassified Class. Change to: Ts s 6	*
Auth.: Hit 74-2			No Change in Class.
			Auth.: Hk 74-2

25X1